~ Dave Rudge from Half-Pints Brewery in Winnipeg is coming back for a Brewer's Dinner on Oct. 2nd. I wrote about this last week and we've already taken reservations! Right now we're planning this for 30 people in the Private Room. IF there is enough interest, we'll move it over to the Dining Room. So make your reservation right away! He'll be bringing a new Oktoberfest Bock that we know will be great, and the newest vintage of Humulus Ludicrous! We sold out of our keg of 2009 vintage in ONE DAY!!

~ More Brewer's Dinner News!! TREE Brewery from Kelowna has booked to be here in February, on the Thursday before Festivale. TREE makes our popular draught beer, Hophead IPA, and we've had their HopHead Double IPA here on occasion too. TREE has a great line-up, especially the CutThroat Pale Ale, and the Beer Bros have sampled more than a few on our annual ski trip!

~ The Labour Day Classic is coming up shortly. Don't miss our 2nd Annual Tailgate Party on Sunday, Sept. 5th! We'll be open early (at noon) and Chef BJ will be serving up his special top-secret smoked ribs. There will also be specials on Appetizer Platters and Great Western Beers!

~ New beers coming up are pretty cool! The 21st Amendment Brewery in sunny San Francisco has a beer that will appeal to 'Rider fans. Hell or High Water Melon Wheat Ale will be made available to the public for the Labour Day Classic. We have only a very limited inventory of this beer which is a refreshing wheat style with just a cool finish of... watermelon! Also coming out of the cooler next week is 21st's Brew Free or Die IPA.

~ If you are wondering...? The 21st Amendment to the U.S. Constitution ended the much hated era of Prohibition. Seemed like a good name for a brewery.
