~ The line-up for this winters Brewmaster's Dinner Series is getting pretty exciting! Dave Rudge from Half Pints in Winnipeg will be here on Saturday, Oct 2nd. Seats are $50 and going quick!

Next up will be the Alley Kat Brewery on Saturday, Nov 13th. This will be their first visit and should be an excellent ex'beer'ience!

Then, Tree Brewery, from Kelowna, is going to be our partner for Festiv-Ale in February, and we'll do a dinner at Beer Bros.

Howe sound Brewery in Surrey BC has agreed to come and we're just trying to work out a date. And Anchor Steam Brewery from San Fransisco is looking to do a spring visit.

Wow! Stay tuned for details as they iron out.

Watch an Original Beer Bros. fall screaming to his death!

Well hopefully not, but two fine employees and one scared of heights partner (me) will be jumping off the Harvard Tower II in tomorrow's Drop Zone for Easter Seals.

Come out and watch, it's always fun!!
