

Greg and a very happy (& drunk) 'Hawks fan.

The crowd celebrates outside Wrigley Field

BlackHawks Win the Stanley Cup!

James and I happened to be in Chicago last week at a restaurant assoc. meeting and got to take in the celebration when the 'Hawks won the Cup. Fantastic! You should have seen the thousands of thrilled fans in the streets in front of Wrigley Field. Chicago was a great city. We found tremendous hospitality and lots of terrific micro-brewery beers!

On Tap This Week

~ We have our first Beer Suggestion Winner!!

Mark Hiesse emailed in with Farmhand Ale from the Driftwood Brewery in Victoria, BC. We tried this Saison style beer, liked it, and now we can share Mark's pick with you! Mark wins a free bottle of Farmhand Ale each week for a month! If you have a suggestion of a great beer you know and love, email beersuggestions@beerbros.ca and share it with us.

~ Chef Malcolm is excited about the World Cup and the prospects for his English Lions. He got to missing some traditional game-time grub and so he started cooking up meat pies. We're offering a "Pie & a Pint" special until the cup ends. You can have a pint of any tap and a meat pie for only $25. Chef will change up the fillings regularly and our servers will be happy to suggest the most appropriate beer pairing.

~ If you are ever in Chicago make sure you head by McGinny's Tap in Old Town close to downtown. The manager, Jeremiah Cowan, is a Regina expatriate and runs an incredibly fun Irish Sports bar.

~ Jer also introduced us to HopLeaf Bar on North Clark. We had a terrific dinner there from a short but inspired menu, and a great beer menu. This will be a "for sure" visit when I next head to Chicago!

~ Last note on Chicago... really impressed by what a clean & friendly city it is!

~ We've added three, count 'em THREE, new big-screen TV's in the lounge so that you can watch the World Cup in style. And don't forget that Roughrider season is just about here. We'll have every game on the tube, all season!
