It's finally patio season!

No matter what the weather says!

OK, so we've got a new railing installed, expanded seating, life-sized Jenga*, and a lot of fun to have. NOW BRING ON THE SUN!! Whenever you look out the window at a beautiful day, start thinking about which of our 150 + beers will go down best. Will it be a cool & smooth wheat beer? Or maybe a crisp pilsner? Oooh, how about a West Coast I.P.A.? Got your beer, now what to eat?! Tough choices that can only be made on the Beer Bros. patio!

Some housekeeping items; Due to Mother Nature's indecisive nature, we Do Not take reservations on the patio. Afterall, you don't want to sit in the rain and we can't guarantee a spot inside.

Also, our patio is a Non-smoking area.

*Life-sized Jenga game is available at request. Rules are simple, fun is huge! Basically, you take a block from the bottom and put it on top. See you out there!

Beer Matterz

(Follow Beer Connoisseur Matt Braun's observations on all things beer and other on Twitter @beermatterz@twitter.com)

Last week was new beer week for sure as we brought in a pile of new beers. Some we hadn't tried yet so we had fun cracking them open and seeing what beer went with what food. Here's the list in case you're thirsty for something new.

Hebrew Origin Pomegranate Ale

Crabbies Ginger Beer

Dechutes Mirror Pond Pale

Haand Dark Force (the only wheat stout in the world)

Maui Coconut Porter

21st Amendment Watermelon wheat (preferred beer of melon-head 'Rider fans!)

Paddockwood Heartstopper Stout (back in the bottle due to popular demand)

Grand Teton Bitch Creek ESB

Haand Odin's Tipple Dark Norse Ale (The most amazing beer we've tried in months.)

Avery Salvation Belgian Style Golden Ale

That ought to keep you beer lovers busy!

Irish Pint O'Gold Party
May 27th in our Private Room we held the Grand Prize Party and gave away a FREE trip for two to the Nando's Canada Cup of Beer in Vancouver!
Congratulations to winners Corrie & Peter Koopman!!

Alley Kat Brewer's Dinner ~ June 16th

Around the Globe in 60 Seconds

First, the news... I attended the Chamber of Commerce luncheon where Ruth Smillie, CEO & Artistic Director of Globe Theatre, confirmed the rumours that Globe Theatre was going to be moving from their present location. They have simply outgrown their space in the Prince Edward Building. It will still be a few years, but the die is cast and change is in the air. Ruth also confirms that Globe is staying downtown. Stay tuned...

In the meantime, "THE SHOW MUST GO ON!" And this year it is going on much later into summer than ever before. "A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline" opens on June 7th and tickets have been so popular that the show has already been extended to the end of June. Make the evening a great ex'beer'ience and dine at Beer Bros. before the show.

Speaking of unsubstantiated rumours.. Did you hear that the Beer Bros. Deli is close to opening? Seems the boys have been working late hours on some construction and even brought in four whole cattle to start making smoked meats. But Sshhh! Don't tell everyone you know!

We Need some Charitable Inspiration

Did you know that in 2011 Beer Bros. gave away just over $15,000 in prizes for charitable endeavors of all kinds?

Did you know that those charities raised over $250,000 for their organizations and the recipients?

Beer Bros. is proud of our community involvement. That being so, Darren and I had an idea. What if we did something wild, different, and moderately dangerous in 2012 to raise money for charity? Here's our three options.

1. Climb Kilimanjaro. Sure lots of people seem to be doing it these days, but we're still talking about hauling our old, rugby-abused bodies up 22,000ft into thin atmosphere.
2. Paddle the Yukon River Quest. Race a canoe 740km in 72 hours or less through the wilds of the frigid Canadian north. Wind, sleet, icy waters, what's not to love?
3. Get on an episode of OLN's ManTracker TV show. Playing the fugitives shouldn't be a stretch while we race on foot vs. a skilled bounty hunter on horseback to beat him to a pre-ordained location before he captures our sorry butts.
4. All three. If we survived our twenties, we can survive anything.

Email your choice to info@beerbros.ca and we'll tally the votes and hit the gym.

Let's try to raise $50,000 for a local charity!!
