Alley Kat Brewer's Dinner

It's set for June 16th and it's going to be a memorable dining experience!! This will be the first for Alley Kat and will sell out soon. Book your seat NOW.

It seems like a while since our last email so there's lots of news and I don't know where to start.

This week we'll be launching a new menu with terrific new dishes that Chefs Malcolm & BJ have created. To up the ante we recently added to our taps and now have twenty-four different draughts available to beer lovers. (The product tasting & selection was a rough task I assure you.)

And in some long awaited news, we're finally moving forward with the renovations to complete the Deli area of our business. Its a couple of months still but we're happy to be making progress.

On that note the patio opening is still a month away. There's some weather-dependant repairs to the brickwork that need to happen first, but we'll let you know as soon as we can.

One of the biggest pieces of news was the arrival of Chef Malcolm and his wife Sarah's new baby daughter! Baby Brianna is healthy, happy and doing well.

Cheers!
