

Over The Barrel

March 17th is our ONE YEAR Anniversary !!

First of all, Thank You. It has been a fantastic year for us and a lot of fun, and we have you to thank for the ex'beer'ience. To celebrate this milestone is going to take more than just one day so there's going to be many things going on at Beer Bros. in March. Look in your mailboxes for a surprise gift to you. Also look for new menu items, Irish beer flights, our "Soup Duel" for the Z99 RadioThon, the Irish Pint O' Gold promotion, another Brewers' Dinner, and ..., well anyway, it's going to be busy. Read on to see more details and don't forget to browse the website.

Brewer's Dinner featuring the Mill Street Brewery

Dave Rudge's visit in February from the Half-Pints Brewery was a huge success with everybody attending asking the question, "When is the next one?" The answer is Thursday, March 5th when Mill Street Brewery showcases five of their favourite beers. Once again Chef Malcolm has got a kick-ass menu planned for 5 courses and Mill Street will guide us through a beer pairing for each course. Tickets are already selling and are limited to only 30 guests. Price for both meal and beer flight is a steal at only $50 plus taxes & gratuity. Purchase at Beer Bros. or with credit card by phone (586-2337).

The ultimate "jack of all trades", is a master of cooking. An east-coaster himself, Dave is a graduate of the Canadian Culinary Institute in P.E.I. and one of the first people asked to come on board at Beer Bros. He charges for the "gun show", but a great meal comes with the ticket.

Did You Know? There is a place in England called Beers Head? It is located near the town of Beer on the southern coast. Due to the stiff winds, Beers Head is a popular destination for both sailing and kite-surfing. My guess is that there's a pub or two as well!
